Recent News

Hello Everyone on this beautiful day.

Don't forget that Monday is a Pupil Free Day.

Here is this week's Recent News.

Inclusiveness and Diversity at KHPS

At this time of year I have been reflecting on the importance of being inclusive and providing tailored supports to all our students, which is something I think our school does really well.

At KHPS we have a strong culture of respect and inclusion, including respect for each student's individual learning pathways. These ideals are part of the everyday conversations that we have as a staff group and with our students. Our school is also a diverse community, which adds to our students' emotional intelligence and the breadth of their learning.

Our school staff go above and beyond to create a positive, safe and engaging environment for all our students, and they adapt their teaching and learning strategies to meet the different needs of all students and to make sure all our students are safe and supported at school. For those students that need extra, some of the additional support we put in place include developing behaviour management plans and individual learning plans, developing safety plans, and engaging additional support services through our wellbeing team.

On top of this, our school community is open minded and supportive, which is something I am proud of. I wanted to thank you all for your support in making our school such an inclusive and welcoming place for all our students and all members of our school community. I also wanted to remind you that I encourage you to speak with me if you think there are any additional supports we can provide to your child, so please don't hesitate to contact me through the office. If there is anything you would like to discuss.

Principal

Election Sausage Sizzle

The big question was not who was going to win the election but whether the onion should go on or under the sausage. We would like to thank Di, Fiona, Ian, Craig, Stacey and Jade who all helped out cooking egg and bacon rolls and sausages on election day. Their help is always greatly appreciated.
